WELCOME TO ACROPOLIS

Throughout history, Greeks have treated food as they treat life -----with moderation, honesty and zest.

Food is woven into the very thread of Greek life. They consider cooking an art and dining a religious and artistic celebration.

The key to Greek cooking: “the use of the finest fresh foods, treated with skill, simplicity and respect”.

Sharing good food and good times with family and friends is an important part of our heritage.

ACROPOLIS is dedicated to honoring the Greek and Italian food cultures of freshness, quality, and customer service.

OUR MISSION

To make every guest a return customer by providing consistent quality food and exceptional customer service.

If you are satisfied, tell your friends
If there is a problem, tell us.
